Copyright Infringement Claims

Our Terms of Use \(https://brokerbees.com/terms-and-conditions-of-use\) specify that Broker Members will only post information that belongs to them, that is accurate, that complies with local and Federal laws, regulations, licensing laws, and that does not violate the rights of third parties.

If BrokerBees is made aware of any content that violates the intellectual property rights of others or that is unlawful, BrokerBees may remove the content or suspend the account of Broker Members who repeatedly infringe the rights of others or who post unlawful content. BrokerBees will make a good faith attempt to contact the alleged infringer, even in circumstances where the content is not removed.

In accordance with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) 17 U.S.C. §512 and other applicable law, BrokerBees has designated the following agent to receive notification from copyright owners of claimed infringements:

Claims must include the following information:

1. An electronic or physical signature of the person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright interest;
2. A description of the copyrighted work that you claim has been infringed;
3. A description specifying the location on our website of the material that you claim is infringing;
4. Your telephone number and e-mail address;
5. A statement by you that you have a good faith belief that the disputed use is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and

6. A statement by you, made under penalty of perjury, that the information in your notice is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf.

A Counter-Notice may be submitted to the same address above. The Counter-Notice must include the following information:

1. Your physical or electronic signature;
2. Identification of the material removed or to which access has been disabled;
3. A statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that removal or disablement of the material was a mistake or that the material was misidentified;
4. Your name and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District court (i) in the judicial district where your address is located if the address is in the United States, or (ii) located in Cook County, Chicago, if your address is located outside the United States, and that you will accept service of process from the Complainant submitting the notice or his/her authorized agent.
